CRMC, City of East Providence & partners open new public fishing pier

The RI CRMC and the City of East Providence (COP) unveiled a new fishing pier at Kettle Point, which was a major project to improve shoreline public access in East Providence. The new pier is the result of a partnership between the CRMC and COP, which aimed to enhance public access to the tidal areas of Rhode Island.

CRMC RISG announce educational public access webinar series

The R.I. CRMC and Rhode Island Sea Grant (RISG) will be hosting a series of webinars this summer aimed at informing the public on issues related to shoreline public access in Rhode Island.

CRMC issues 2019-20 annual report

The RI CRMC, with partners, has released its annual report for 2019-20, which highlights the agency's role in identifying and designating CRMC Rights-of-Way to the shore, best uses of shoreline access points, and current efforts to improve shoreline access in the state.